

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN HEALTH PROFESSIONS EDUCATION AND LEADERSHIP

Application for Credit Accumulation & Transfer (CAT) or Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Students aiming to enter the Postgraduate Diploma in Health Professions Education and Leadership programme may already be working in a health education context and/or have gained knowledge as a result of learning in the workplace and in other settings. Relevant prior learning can be recognised on an individual basis. Admission to the PG Dip Health Professions Education and Leadership programme provides for recognition of prior learning (RPL), as stipulated and managed by the institutional Recognition of Prior Learning Policy.

In addition, students may apply for the Credit Accumulation and Transfer (CAT) for credit exemption for a module or subject passed at another accredited university.

Kindly complete all the required information and submit all required documentation. Once you have completed this step, you will receive a message indicating that you have completed the request for CAT or RPL and that your application has been submitted for review.

Thank you in advance for applying for CAT/RPL for the Postgraduate Diploma in Health Professions Education and Leadership.
